The Problem

1 Severe Currency Depreciation

LKR has seen dramatic depreciation, peaking at 81.16% in 2022, with a 1.92% drop already in 2025 (Jan–Apr), reducing the USD value of your savings (e.g., Rs. 1,000,000 fell from $3,413 to $3,348).

3 Low USD Fixed Deposit Yields

USD 3-month fixed deposits offer only 3.5% APY, growing Rs. 1,000,000 (~$3,333) to just $3,387 in 3 months—well below Eden’s 9% APY in USD and insufficient for global purchasing power.

2 Inflation Outpaces Fixed Deposit Returns

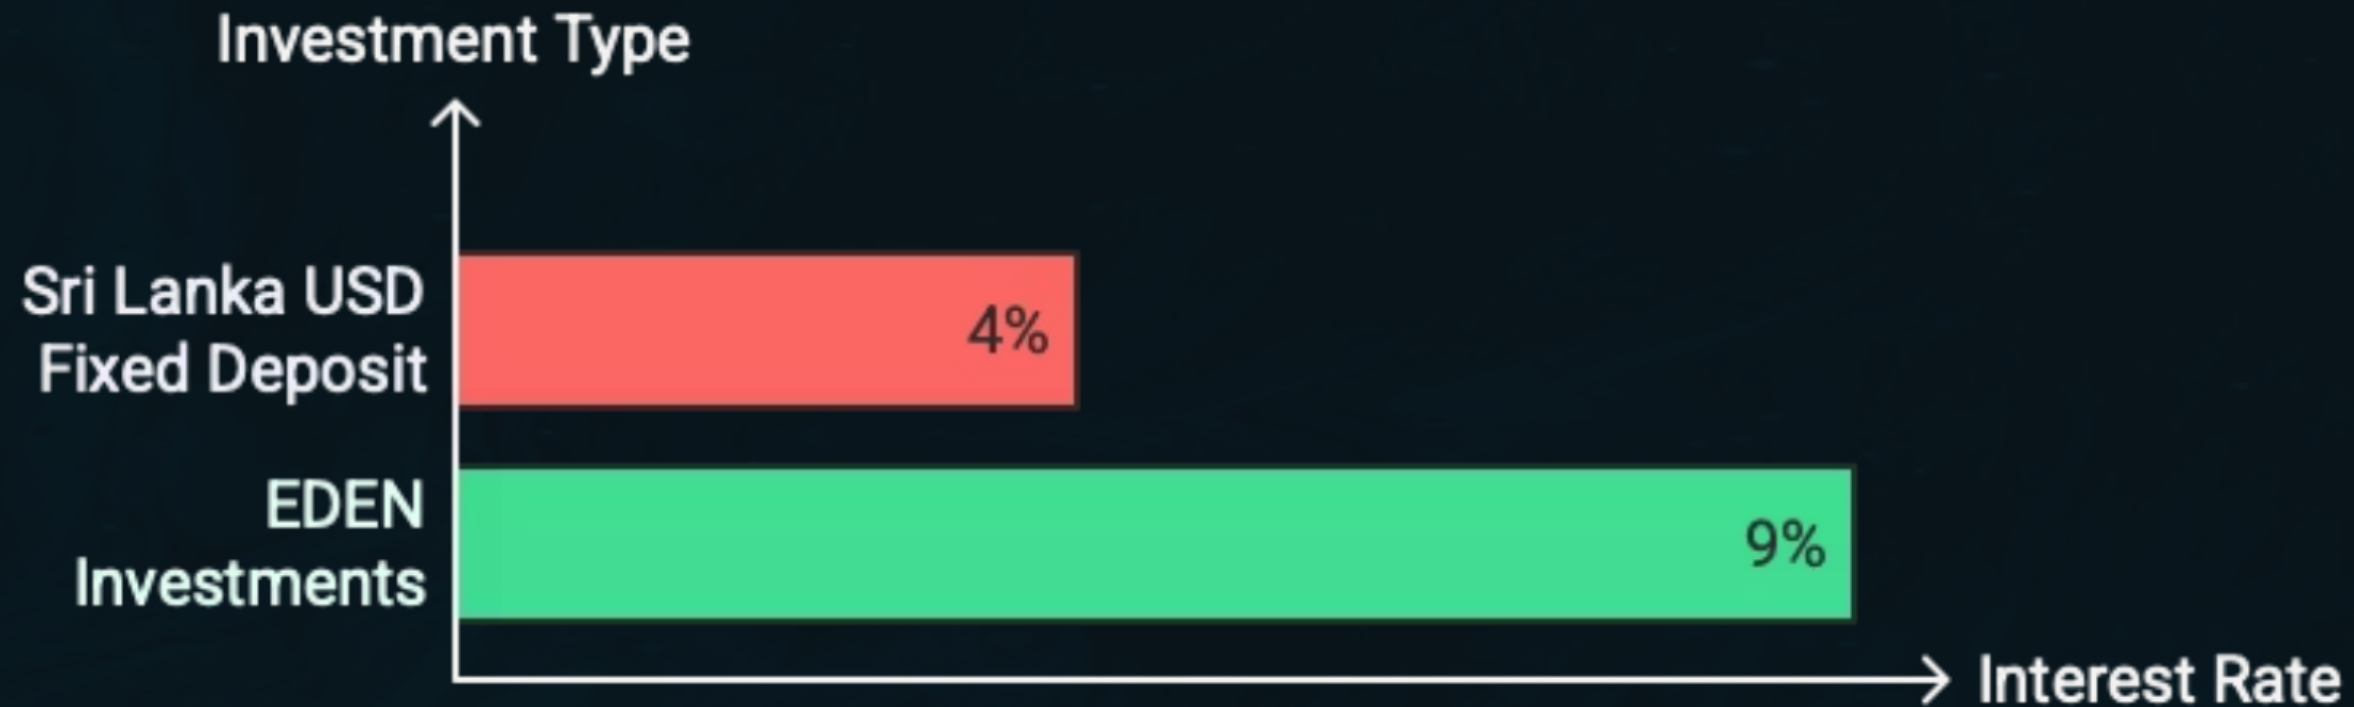

Inflation spiked to 70% in 2022 (CCPI, Y–o–Y), and even with 2025 deflation (–4% CCPI, Jan), historical volatility (e.g., 12% in June 2023) far exceeds the 7% APY on LKR 3-month fixed deposits, leading to negative real returns.

4 Lack of Flexibility and Global Access

Traditional investments lock funds for years, offer limited global exposure, and fail to protect against Sri Lanka’s economic volatility, leaving your wealth at risk.
